

WAO2019 Singapore Team Selection

Singapore will make submissions to compete in the following events at the World Agility Open Championships in 2019:

- Pentathlon Championship: 2 rounds of Agility, 2 rounds Jumping, and 1 round Speedstakes
- Biathlon Championship: 1 round Agility and 1 round Jumping
- Games Championship: Snooker and Gamblers
- Team Championship: 2 rounds Agility, 2 rounds Jumping and a Team Relay

Three (3) dog-handler teams in each WAO height category will win their way into the Pentathlon, Biathlon and Games events by competing in at least four (4) UKI Singapore Trials in 2018 to earn WAO qualification points.

Details of the qualification process are outlined below.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THE TRIP IS SELF FUNDED

Pentathlon, Biathlon & Games Selection via UKI Singapore Trials 2018

The three (3) highest placed eligible dogs from each height category will be invited to represent Singapore at the WAO Championships in the Individual Agility Pentathlon Championship, Agility Biathlon and Agility Games Championship. The fourth and fifth placed eligible dogs from each height category shall be reserve teams accordingly.

Teams must compete in at least 4 (four) UKI shows organized by the Clean Run Agility Club (Singapore) or Go for Flow Agility in 2018 to qualify. For teams competing in more than four (4) shows, results from their best four (4) shows will be used to calculate their highest score achieved.

Only classes under the International Program and Masters Heats Agility and Masters Heats Jumping will be eligible for WAO Qualification Points. No qualification points will be awarded for Speedstakes.

Every UKI show in 2018 will offer at least two (2) classes under the International Program e.g. Agility and Games or Agility and Jumping or Jumping and Games, and may offer Masters
